

Dave Wilkins is responsible for HealthcareSource product and solution strategy, with oversight of the multi-year roadmap, related market research and new product innovation. He has more than 20 years of experience in talent management leadership roles.

Previously, Dave co-founded the Oracle Sales Academy, a sales enablement organization serving Oracle's global sales team. Before Oracle, he was head of Taleo Research, where he researched key topics related to strategic talent management. Dave also formerly was vice president of product marketing for Learn.com and chief strategy officer for Knowledge Impact, where he spearheaded OEM relationships with PeopleSoft, Clarify, and Witness Systems.

Dave has been a thought leader in the field of human capital management across a variety of critical subjects, including learning theory, social enterprise practices and strategic talent management. He has contributed to major national and regional events, including chairing the HR Metrics Conference, keynoting the Training Conference and ATD Chapter Leaders Conference, and headlining TriState ASHHRA, MSHHRA, VaSHHRA and the annual American College of Health Care Administrators' convocation. In addition to his extensive speaking experience, David has written dozens of magazine articles for industry publications, including for McKnight's Senior Living.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts from the University of New Hampshire.
