

Matt Mello

Matt Mello is the VP of Senior Care with Fully Managed. His goal is to help senior care communities make smart technology choices that support care, service delivery, security and efficiency. He has over 25 years experience working with the Senior Care sector, including positions as a Registered Respiratory Therapist, in long-term care pharmacy, with PointClickCare, in home health, and experience on the provider side with a seven-location chain in Massachusetts.