

Parker Wells

Co-founder and Vice President
Care To Stay Home

Parker Wells is co-founder and vice president of Care To Stay Home based in Santa Ana, CA. In this position, he oversees the operations and marketing efforts in Southern California. He also consults with home care operations as well as health systems nationwide and maintains relationships with industry-leading professionals to help shape the delivery of in-home care services. He has been involved in the home care industry since 1998.