ABOUT THE MCKNIGHT'S 2023 PINNACLE AWARDS

McKnight's is proud to announce our first Pinnacle Awards. This one-of-a-kind program recognizes industry veterans who are setting the standard, driving change, providing guidance and inspiring us all.

Professionals with at least 20 years of experience in the field, but who continue to strive for success, are eligible. Whether this be a boss, colleague, mentor or friend, we urge you to nominate a deserving individual for one of McKnight's' most prestigious achievement awards.

"With the Pinnacle Awards, McKnight's is honoring the individuals who have not only reached the top of the profession but managed to remain there for years," said Publisher Craig Roth. "They've inspired us in the past and they'll continue to do so for as long as they remain in the field."

(Note: This category is not part of the regular nomination and judging process. Potential candidates will be gathered and considered by event organizers, who will determine one award winner each year. Only one award will be given annually.)*
Vendors are not eligible to enter/win this category*

JUDGING

After entries are submitted, a panel of judges will begin a thorough judging process.

Any juror who has a potential conflict of interest will not be allowed to judge that entry.

All jurors will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement that bans them from disclosing information from entry submissions.

Judges do not discuss their individual scores with anyone – not even with each other. As such, the winners are not known until honorees are announced in December. Only the highest-scoring nominees will be awarded as a winner. Note: This may mean that certain categories will not have a winner.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All nominations must be submitted by a peer of the nominee. No self-nominations at this time. All nominees should be actively involved in the field. Vendors are only eligible to enter into the Business Partner Award category. Any entries in the other categories will be disqualified.

Each entry must be submitted online. Once all entry information is prepared, you can submit your entries online through our submission portal. All entries must be submitted and paid for online. You may input your entry information and save as a draft to return at a later date to submit payment. Credit cards accepted include Visa, Mastercard and American Express. Entries that are not paid prior to judging will not be considered.

McKnight's reserves the right to publish information about the nomination if the individual is chosen as a Pinnacle honoree. If any information in your nomination must be kept confidential, please use the Confidential Information section on the nomination form, and only the McKnight's editorial team will see it. This includes the headshot.

All nomination forms must be submitted with a high-quality headshot of the nominee. All headshots should be color, at least 300 dpi and, preferably, professionally shot. Images should be no smaller than 3" by 3". File size should not be less than 300 KB.
