

Michael Christensen
Founder of EasyShifts

Michael Christensen helps health care providers create staff schedules that ensure high standards of patient care while achieving employee work/life balance. He started EasyShifts with the vision of giving healthcare workers flexibility over their work schedule so they could pick up casual shifts and ease the administrative burden on schedulers. Michael enjoys collaborating directly with the program's users to brainstorm ways to make the lives of healthcare workers better.