

Greg Hoonjan*Executive Director of Stone Rehabilitation and Senior Living

Greg Hoonjan is the Executive Director of Stone Rehabilitation and Senior Living, A Non-Profit Continuum of Comprehensive Care. He is a resident-centered healthcare leader striving to provide the highest level of quality of care. Greg began his long-term care career as a Certified Nursing Assistant, providing direct care and has since held many administrative roles over the last 10 years. Greg excels at educating residents, families, and co-workers on understanding the complexities of long-term care to help provide comfort and support to residents and families, while also developing a stronger interdisciplinary team to improve quality and care outcomes.